ender, besed on an entirely new principle. It is a new, different form never successfully imitated. It makes come shrivel and then vanish. Two drops do the work. You don't bundle up your toe any more with sticky tape and plasters that press down on the poor corn—no more flesh-eating sathat don't "stay put." no more hacking at corns with knives or rasors, no more bleeding or danger of blood poison. No more limping around for days with sore corns, no more corn pains.

"GETS-IT" is now the biggest-selling corn cure in the world. Use a on any hard or soft corn, wart, callus or bundon. Tenight's the night.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere. 25 cents a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co. Chicasp.—Adv.

Harry J. McKinley Dead. Harry J. McKinley, son of H. C. icKinley, died this morning at the residence of his father, west of Washburn college, leaving a wife and one child.
Death occurred from sarcoma, at 7:30 this morning. Mr. McKinley had been ill for two months, in which time he underwent three operations. About six weeks ago H. C. McKinley was called to Los Angeles, Cal., on account of his son's illness. He remained there soveral weeks and on his return was accompanied by his son. The McKinley family is well known on the North side, having formerly lived on North Van Buren street.

North Topeka Banks Examined.

Deputy state bank examiners exam-ned the two North Topeka banks yes-terday and today. This is done twice each year.

Due to the bad condition of the Union Pacific Kansas avenue crossing, an order has been issued by the yard-master of the Union Pacific, prohibiting trains from sking over four miles an hour while cursing Kansas avenue. Formerly trains crossed at this intersection at a speed of sixteen miles an hour.

At the Grand.

The play that shocked and thrilled New Yor's to such an exight that it ran there for an entire season is "Today," the sensational drama by George Broadhurst and Abraham Schomer, which will be seen at the Grand Wednesday matthee and night. When this play was first produced in New York, society was agape at the problems that were unfolded. It was a play that every married couple wanted to see, and every engaged couple felt forced to watch, touching as it does upon the most thrilling and stirring themes of the day. For its presentation here, Manager Harry Von Tilzer has selected the following brilliant cast George MacQuarrie, Helen MacKeilar, Helen Judson, Chas. N. Greene, May Hefthett, Amelia Mayborn, Frank Kimball and Jane Wallace.

Charles Howard, a sister of Mr. Van Orsdol, was the only one present who attended the wedding fifty years ago.
